

"THE WAY" TO SAN JOSE GRAND PRIX

World class open-wheel racing comes to the streets of Downtown San Jose with one of California's largest and most anticipated sporting events. The Taylor Woodrow Grand Prix of San Jose will be a fun event for both adults and children alike. The non-stop festivities will encompass activities both on and off the track that will draw spectators not only from the entire city, but from the greater Bay Area. The racecourse and associated events will be located in and around Plaza de Cesar Chavez and the San Jose Convention Center. For additional information and ticket sales, visit www.sanjosegrandprix.com or call (408) 277-9470.

AVOID PAYING PARKING FEES AND THE CONGESTION – TAKE PUBLIC TRANSIT!!!

Patrons are encouraged to use the extensive public transit system that is available to and from the event. Following are some highlighted transit routes and stops:

- From South San Jose, park in one of the many park and ride lots for free and catch the Light Rail to the Children's Discovery Museum Station where one of the four San Jose Grand Prix gates is located.

- From North San Jose, take Light Rail to the Paseo de San Antonio Station. A short walk on the Paseo de San Antonio will get you to the San Jose Grand Prix gate located at the Plaza de Cesar Chavez.
- The following bus lines will stop right at the San Jose Grand Prix gate located at Santa Clara St and Almaden Blvd: Bus lines 23, 63, 64, 65, 68, 81, 85, 180, 300 and 305 and the Downtown Area Shuttle (DASH). For additional information on bus route and Light Rail schedules, visit www.vta.org.
- Use Caltrain from San Francisco and the peninsula, Morgan Hill or Gilroy. Use Altamont Commuter Express (ACE) trains from the Central Valley. Visit www.caltrain.com and www.acerail.com for additional information.
